GOVERNMENT OF ORISSA
FINANCE DEPARTMENT

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Bhubaneswar, the 25 March, 1991.

Sub:-

Deputation of Govt. servants for undergoing higher study/training.

In Finance Department Office Memorandum No. 19230/F dt. 6.5.88, it has been laid down that special allowance would be admissible to Govt. servants deputed on training being sponsored by State Govt. or nominated by Govt. of India. A question has been raised as to whether a Govt. servant, who is deputed to undergo higher study being sponsored by State Government or nominated by Government of India, will be entitled to get the special allowance during the period of higher study.

The matter has been carefully considered by Govt. and it is hereby ~~xxx~~ clarified that the special allowance, as admissible in case of deputation on training, will also be admissible in case of deputation on higher study by treating the period of higher study as a course of instruction or training within the meaning of Rule 13(b)(i) of the O.S.C.
