

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Bhubaneswar, the 13th July, 1978.

SUBJECT:-

CASH PAYMENT IN LIEU OF UN-UTILISED EARNED LEAVE ON THE DATE OF RETIREMENT.

.....

The undersigned is directed to refer to para 3(d) of this Department Office Memorandum No. 60319/F., dated 28th Nov., 1977 on the above subject, according to which deduction on account of pension and pension equivalent of other retirement benefits is required to be made from the cash amount worked out in accordance with para 3(c) ibid. Government have reconsidered the matter in the light of modifications made recently by the Government of India in their scheme of cash payment in lieu of unutilised earned leave, and the Governor is now pleased to decide that no deduction on account of pension and pension equivalent of other retirement benefits need be made from the cash payment. Para 3(d) of this Department's O.M. No. 60319/F., dated 28.11.77 is therefore deleted with effect from 30.11.77.

2. Further, as a result of the decision mentioned in the preceding paragraph, it will no longer be necessary to deduct the temporary increase in pension as laid down in Finance Department O.M. No. 25153/F., dated 20.5.1978 which is also hereby cancelled.

3. The Departments/Offices who have authorised payment under this Department O.M. dated 28.11.1977 shall review the cases suo-motu and issue revised order for cash payment.

4. Formal amendments to Orissa Leave Rules, 1966 will follow.
