FINANCE DEPARTMENT

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

The 30th Septembre 1991

Subject—Admissibility of Festival Advance to Non-Gazetted Government employees—Raising of the pay limit.

The maximum payceiling of the non-gazetted Government employees for availing of the Festival advance was last fixed at Rs. 1,320 P.M. in Office Memorandum No. 1116, dated the 8th January 1986. Consequent upon implementation of the Orissa Revised Scales of Pay Rules, 1989 the question of upward revision of the pay ceiling of the non-gazetted Government employees for availing of such an advance was under consideration of Government.

2. After careful consideration Government have now been pleased to decide that the maximum pay limit of the non-gazetted Government employees shall be fixed at Rs. 1,800 per month in the revised scales of pay to become eligible for the Festival advance. The non-gazetted Government employees continuing in the pre-revised scales within the maximum pay ceiling of Rs. 1,320 P. M. will also be eligible for the aforesaid advance till they come over to the Revised Scales of Pay, 1989.

3. All other terms and conditions earlier prescribed by Government relating to sanction, recovery etc. of the advance shall remain unaltered.

4. This order shall take effect from the date of issue.
