

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Bhubaneswar, the // th November, 1986.

Travelling Allowance is admissible to Government servants under the administrative control of the State Government according to provision of the Orissa Travelling Allowance Rules. Often members of the All India Services working under the administrative control of the State Government are required to proceed on transfer to work under Government of India. and other states or state A doubt has been expressed in certain quarters as to the rate at which T.A. would be admissible to such officers being sent out to Government of India and when returning to the State Government.

2. As per Rule-4 of the All India Services (T.A.) Rules, 1954 the travelling allowance of a member of the service who is serving under one Government, shall on transfer or deputation for service under any other Government is to be governed by the rules of the Government under whom he is transferred or deputed to serve unless, by a special or general order of the Government he continues to be governed by the rules of the Government under whom he was serving before such transfer or deputation.

3. Rule 97 of the Orissa Travelling Allowance Rules provides that when a Government servant under the administrative control of the State Government is transferred to the control of another Government which has made rules prescribing amounts and conditions of travelling allowance, his travelling allowance for the journey to join his post under that Government and for the return journey will be governed by the rules of that Government regulating travelling allowance on transfer.

4. In view of the above general provision of the Orissa Travelling Allowance Rules, it is clarified that members of the All India Services for their journeys on transfer or deputation to the Government of India and reversion to the State Government are eligible for Travelling Allowance as per the travelling allowance rules prescribed for them by the Government of India.
