Sub:- Devolution of powers to Panchayat Raj Institutions (PRIs)

Sir / Madam,

In inviting your kind attention to the subject cited above, the mandate of the Constitution is reiterated for appreciation of the matter.

1. As per 73rd amendment of the Constitution, the Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) are required to be endowed with adequate responsibilities and powers to enable them to function as the “Institutions of self-government”. Article 243-G of the Constitution of India, which deals with the crucial issue of powers, authority and responsibilities of the Panchayats (3 tier of Panchayats) reads as “Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, the Legislature of a State May, by law, endow the Panchayats with such Powers and authority as may be necessary to enable them to function as institutions of self-government and such law may contain provisions for the devolution of powers and responsibilities upon the Panchayats at the appropriate level, subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, with respect to (a) the preparation of plans for economic development and social justice, and (b) the implementation of such schemes for economic development and social justice as may be entrusted to them including those in relation to the matters listed in the Eleventh Schedule.”

2. Panchayat laws of Orissa have been amended consistent with provisions of 73rd amendment of the Constitution. Section 3(3) of the Orissa Zilla Parishad Act, 1991 has since been amended. Steps are being taken to incorporate similar provisions by amending the Orissa Panchayat Samiti Act, 1959 and the Orissa Grama Panchayat Act, 1964 to enable the PRIs to function as institutions of self-government. It is necessary to make Panchayati Raj Institutions clear about the role that they are expected to play for economic development and social justice.
3. After careful consideration, Government has been pleased to assign definite functions and provide functionaries to PRIs for implementation/execution of functions as mentioned hereunder.

4. AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT
